ROBERT WYNNE (WILL) 1675

Robert Wynne of Jordon's Parish of Charles City County in Virginia, Gent. Will July 1675; proved 15 August 1678. To be buried in Jordon's Church as near as possible to my son Robert. My estate in England as follows: To my eldest son Thomas Wynne one farm in Whitestaple Parish in Kent near Canterbury and commonly called Linebett Branches; if he die, to my son Joshua, and if he die, to my daughter Woodlief. To my son Thomas two houses in Canterbury in St Mildred's Parish in the same form as the said farm. To my youngest son Joshua Wynne one house and oatmeal mill lying in Dover Lane without St George's in Canterbury commonly called the Lily Pott, and two houses adjoining where a Rope-maker and a Rawlins were formerly tenants. Touching my estate in Virginia, to my son Thomas all of the cattle of his own mark except one cow called Moll which is to be killed for provision; to my son Joshua my plantation called Georges with all the tobacco houses; to my daughter Woodlief one servant of flower years to serve the next shipping after my decease; to my grand child and godson young George Woodlief one filly foal. All the rest of my estate in Virginia and England to my wife and Executrix, Mary Wynne. Overseers: Thomas Grendon, Merchant; and my son-in-law Capt. Francis Poythres.

The following note is from Virginia Magazine and History and Biography; Vol. VIV P. 173,174

(The testator, Capt. Robert Wynne was, in his day, one of the most influential men in Virginia. Beginning his services as a representative of Charles City County at the sessions of March 1657-8, and March 1659-60, he was during the entire existence of the Virginia's "Long Parliament" 1661-74, speaker of the House of Burgesses. It would appear from his will that he married a widow Poythres). (Not by F.C.W.: If Capt Francis Poythres is his son-in-law how could Robert Wynne have been married to a widow Poythres). The Woodliefs are believed to be descendents of Capt. John Woodlief, who came to Virginia in 1620 to take charge of the well known Berkley plantation, in regard to which the "Smith of Mibley Papers", now in the New York Public Library, give so much interesting information. Robert's ~~sons~~ Wynne's were living and married in the 18th century. Thomas Wynne, Gent. of Prince George County, was living in 1707 and then aged 50. In November of the same year, he, together with Agnes, his wife, made deeds recorded in Surry, to his daughter Mary Malone, and to his son Robert Wynne. Major Joshua Wynne and Mary, his Wife, deeded a tract of land in 1708. In that year, he was Justice of the Peace of Prince George Co. These brothers are believed to be the ancestors of Wynne's of Sothern Va.)

Further notes on Joshua Wynne:

~~Joshua~~ Joshua Wynne was in the Virginia House of Burgesses in 1702 representing Charles City County before Prince George became a County. When Prince George was created a new election was ordered because Wynne no longer properly represented Charles City County. (From the minutes of the House of Burgesses, 1702)

Henrico Records, Oct. 1, 1689: Joshua Wynn, aged 27 years, or thereabout, Deposeth: That the deposeth stated that he started the horses and as soon as they were off William Cocke closed in on ye boy and bore in on the boys path going in about 60 yards in that manner, and further saith not.

Joshua Wynne.

June 1, 1694, Joshua Wynne, aged about 31 years deposeth That he has seen the negro man now sued for by Capt Cocke working at Mr. Thomas's Chamberlains Several times, <sup>since</sup> he saw him at Capt Cocke's and he further saith not.
